The State of Exposing and Dislodging the Serpent

Four Promises God gave Dutch Sheets for Arkansas in 2004:

1. I am going to restore the Foundations. God is returning Arkansas to be the Land of Opportunity once again.
2. I am going to realign and restore Arkansas with its God-ordained purpose. Arkansas is a state of refuge where God will reinfuse hope. Arkansas has a deliverance anointing upon it.
3. I am going to expose and dislodge the serpent, Leviathan, the strongman over Arkansas. The ability to distort communications will be cast down. Dislodge speaks to the Masonic structure to be undone. God will deal with witchcraft, light, and revelation, and the gift of discerning of spirits will be released. The Lodge will be dislodged.
4. It's time for Arkansas to bloom. Declare Isaiah 35 as a redemptive scripture.

Interesting Facts About Arkansas:

The Arkansas Capital is Little Rock. It was the first state capitol to fly the Appeal to Heaven flag.

Arkansas is ranked #41 of all 50 States for education and median income. Only 30% of residents have a college education and their median income is $26K. A spirit of poverty hangs over Arkansas, which is slowly being cast down by the Ekklesia.

It's the home to the world's largest retailer, Wal-Mart. It's also the Headquarters of Tyson's, J.B. Hunt, and other Fortune 500 Companies.

Arkansas is the only place in the United States where diamonds can be mined. That, in and of itself, portrays a very unique image for Arkansas.

Was God saying something about Arkansas thousands of years ago, when He formed the environment deep below the surface of the earth under intense heat and pressure? Diamonds would be formed and later transported to the ground by way of a volcanic eruption. It wasn't until 1906, after years of the earth shifting and settling, that a diamond was actually discovered.

I believe it was at this point in the history of the State that God's wooing began in a visible way. The diamond is a beautiful gemstone; it speaks of love and covenant. Every aspect of the form and shape of a diamond into the jewel we see has a unique connection to our relationship with God. The rough uncut diamond is beautiful without refinement, but it is in the refinement process that the reflection of light becomes aligned to its source. As the stone is shaped and cut, a crown is formed. Its perfect multifaceted angles reflect the beauty of light.

This is the process we are all in. We are diamonds in various stages of being refined to fully reflect His light and glory. Arkansas is full of diamonds. We are searching for them, calling for them to come and help us build the Kingdom of God in our land.

Prophetic Words over Arkansas:

A faith-filled movement prophesied by Corrie Ten Boom is igniting revival and inspiring hope across Arkansas. Corrie Ten Boom was said to have been flying over Arkansas when she looked down and asked where they were, and prophesied about a great ministry from the area.

Apostolic and Prophetic Houses of Worship are rising up to replace the predominant churches of poverty in Arkansas.
