Prophetic Words for Vermont:

Chuck Pierce prophesied, "It's time for Vermont to go to war for your inheritance... The beauty of holiness, I have rested on this state... the light of your inner radiance has dwindled... You are known as the Sleeping Beauty of this nation and I would say to this state, it is time for that sleeping beauty to wake up. You have kicked against the pricks and even poison has caused you to go to sleep... So I am calling forth the leaders and the princes of this state to rise up and begin to stand together and decree into the atmosphere. And that which has been encompassed by thorns will begin to break... It is time to rise up and allow Me to move... It is time to shout into the atmosphere AWAKE, and as you shout, healing will begin to fall in your midst." The Church has to rise up to contend with things that are trying to put it to sleep."

Dutch Sheets prophesied, "Make room for Me to do something you've not seen before." He declared that they have to learn to focus their attention more on the unseen than what they see around them. He said that they could change their church, business and home if they would go daily and began to decree the word of the Lord for 30-60 minutes in that building over the vision and over the congregation. If you do enough decreeing/prophesying together, you will change this state."

Chuck Pierce prophesied, "Rise up and go to each city and cry awake. For I say if you will cry and decree that each city will awake, there will be a movement of My Spirit that surprises each church in each city."

Bill Yount prophesied, "The Freeze is over in Vermont. A thaw is coming to the New England States. Vermont will no longer be called frozen but chosen. There's a melt-down taking place which will take the body of Christ by storm. Physical and spiritual prisons will discover a river running through them, with angelic activity waking people up as the angel woke Peter up in prison and walked him to freedom."
