

New Mexico

State Motto: "It Grows as it Goes" or "The Land of Enchantment"

Prophetic Meaning of New Mexico: "The Supernatural State"

Chuck Pierce and Dutch Sheets Prophecies:

Dutch Sheets declared Isaiah 35 over New Mexico--that the desert will bloom. He prophesied, "The moving of My Spirit is on this land, and the firstfruits of My Spirit will be manifested here. There will be an outbreak of the supernatural, with a demonstration of miracles. Welcome My Spirit, for there are many spirits in this land. I am the Revelator. From this day forth, the prophets will be able to sound a clear trumpet in New Mexico. Watch the winds for they are a sign. Don't hide yourself from the wind, but allow it to blow away that which has grown dusty. Many who have come into the supernatural but not by My Spirit will now come into My Kingdom. I will bring in the witches and warlocks, and a great conversion of those that have experienced the supernatural of the enemy. I am getting ready to bring them in and raise up prophets in your midst. Current leaders who stand in My pulpit, will stand to speak, but the spirit of prophesy will come upon them. I am releasing mysteries, strategies, and revelation. Cry out for the leaders of this state to receive the prophetic mantle. New Mexico will surprise the nations. The hidden will be revealed. A supernatural 'something' will happen that will shift the economy of this state. Death and destruction have been in this state, but faith is coming to the pueblos. Invite faith into the pueblos!"

Cindy Jacobs:

I said, "Lord, why has Satan bothered to put such a pocket of occult into New Mexico." And He said that Santa Fe is such a convergence of occult power, psychic power, new age power, crystals, Wicca, paganism. The Lord spoke to me and said because New Mexico is the hiding place of my power. And Satan is very, very, afraid of the authority and anointing of miracles and the glory that I am going to pour through this state. So, he has had to demonize it. I tell you, because of the prayers that have come out of here the kingdom of Satan is shaken! When He comes, you are going to see glory pour out, because the Lord has showed me there is going to be a massive revival that comes out of this state—one that they will write about in history books. A sign on the highway out of Albuquerque said, “New Mexico, Capital for the most nuclear energy.” I said wow! This is good because you see these are shadows and types. So, we are just going to make you the biggest bomb ever to be dropped on Satan’s kingdom. I tell you; you are his worst nightmare.

No longer will New Mexico be known as the place to come and hear from the occult, but it will be known as the place to hear the voice of God. It will be known as a place to receive revelation and wisdom from the Holy Spirit.
