Prophetic Declaration: "A State Receiving God's Covenant Blessing"

Chuck Pierce and Dutch Sheets prophesies:

A State Receiving God's Covenant Blessing. Dutch Sheets prophesied over Tennessee 'I want you to realize I have given you the authority to decree, bind, loose, to close doors and open doors.' The Lord is saying, 'Go to another level of governmental authority. This is the Volunteer State, the Psalm 110 State. I will take this state to a new level of power and strength and functioning as a volunteer army of God. A new warring spirit is breaking forth in the state of Tennessee, and you will step into that mantle again.' " Dutch told how the Lord showed him on the flight to Tennessee that a curse relating to Israel had been removed off the state. On March 24, 2003 (3 days earlier), at the Capitol, the Lt Governor publicly formalized the resolution passed by Tennessee that the state would support Israel! (Dutch had no idea.) That night God gave Tennessee its reward! Dutch continued, "Tennessee, it's a new day for you. You did something in natural government this week that did something in the Spirit, and it broke decades-long or probably a 100-150 year-old curse. God said, 'Because of your allegiance and alignment with Israel here, I moved you from curse to covenant blessings.' The word volunteer means a freewill offering. They had to volunteer, to feel it in their heart. The Lord said, 'I'm going to take this state to a new level of serving.' " Chuck Pierce confirmed this as he prophesied, ""Because Tennessee has aligned themselves with the nation of Israel and chose to bless My people and covenant with them, I am reversing the curse of the broken covenant (especially with the Native American people) and am bringing them into a new blessing of covenantal release. I am going to bring it to a new level of unity."

We say, "From this city, a new history begins tonight!" God has brought us here to witness a restoration of covenant that will change the course of this nation, coming from this place in a different way. Because of our gathering tonight, we will receive keys to unlock the Kingdom of God from TN.

And I say to you, "Tonight I have come to turn The Trail that is planted deep in the atmosphere. I say tonight a spirit of betrayal will break from My people's lives."

So I say, "Look up into the Heavens. Look up and watch, for over this land called, 'Tennessee' a window is opening." I say, "It is time for visitation to come, and I am lifting this state out of the conformity of a nation, and you will begin to be set apart in a new way. For betrayals have entered the nation again, and covenants will be tested again," but I say, "This state is being lifted up above the land of betrayal to restore a people in days to come."

And I say to you, "This is a gate that has been closed for seasons upon seasons. It is a gate that has been ancient above this land." But I say, "Because the Ancient of Days has now rested Himself above Tennessee, I will begin to rearrange the legal courts that rule this nation!" I say, "From this place, you are opening up more than you know. And where the enemy has wearied My people through laws and changing of times," I say to you, "I am opening a gate to reset time and I will use Tennessee as a model of a state with a voice that echoes My time," saith the LORD.

And because of tonight, of your setting aside to bring My right order in,' I say to you, 'A voice will now arise from this state, a voice that will be heard throughout the nation,' and I say, 'From this state, a voice of reconciliation and restitution will begin to flood the nation. For even now there is a decree forming against My plan in this nation that now will be uncovered,' saith the Lord. 'Because of what you have done tonight, what was planned by the enemy will now be thwarted.'

On May 31, 2008 ... God caught me up ... and He for four hours began to show me what was to come again ... He showed me...state by state by state what this nation looked like.... There were 21 states in covenant with the Lord in this nation, only 21. So don't be deceived into thinking that this nation is in full covenant with the Lord. It is not.... Every state constitution is based on a godly covenant, but until a people in that land in time establish that covenant and demonstrate that covenant, that covenant is just paper.

Then in 2010, God showed Chuck TN. It was the only state lifted up above the conformity of the land. In other words, TN was not a state that would be controlled by the land laws, but by the laws of heaven.... It was the only state that was being lifted up and set apart for the future to be a prototype, a voice, sort of like the priesthood tribe, the tribe of Levi that was set apart. It was as if God was bringing this state up.... Tennessee was pulled up and set apart. Do you know what that means to me? God has chosen this state and He is about to do something in you... God is drawing you up, pulling you out of old structures, and you are not going to be the same that you have been in the past.
