

Washington

Prophetic Prayer Focus for Washington State: (Evergreen State) Motto: By and By, Prophetic Declaration: The Whirlwind State

There were many prophetic words spoken over Washington State!

Dutch Sheets heard the Lord say, "I am coming to bring order to the Church in Washington." He saw puzzle pieces flying around in a circle like a whirlwind. By the time it finished, there was a puzzle but he did not see what it looked like. God said, 'I am going to send a whirlwind.' He saw that it was of God and the pieces were picked up because there was disarray and a spirit of confusion over Washington. Then he saw Him pick up the pieces and begin to deposit them. When He finished it was all in order. Then he saw the pieces turn into words. Dutch prophesied, God says, 'I am going to bring My word and My voice is going to come forth and will bring order.' I would say to you that this is a whirlwind of judgment and blessing meant to deal with the disorder and things that are not good. But in God's profound way when He dealt with Satan and brought judgment, He was also bringing life.

Chuck Pierce declared: "Foursquare--God's going to shake it up. He decreed that in the next several months there will be a great shaking in the foursquare Church. Leadership will change. What is hidden will be exposed! Chuck also shared, "I hear the Lord saying that worship is going to be very significant in this season. 'You must give to Me extended seasons of worship at meetings designed just to worship Me. In your own devotion and prayer life, you must into a season with prolonged periods of worship and praise which will lubricate you and make you pliable and soft. Praise will break things in the Spirit. Praise is going to free things and enthrone Me in situations. You will see Me move where you did not even ask Me to move.' Listen this is the word of the Lord over you. There is coming a resurrecting of promises to the state of Washington. There is coming a fruitfulness and fertility.

Chuck Pierce also issued a Call several years ago for both Washington State and Oregon: "The Ground Will Make a Shift"

"Pray for Washington State and Oregon. I send an alarm from Zion across Washington State and Oregon and I say, 'Wake up and watch, for there is a change coming to your ground and a new, new opening is coming from Heaven, but now the ground will make a shift.

Jolene Hamill: TELL THEM I'M TAKING BACK MY RAINBOW! For instance, the vision we shared Wednesday about the rooftop restaurant with the "Windows to the World" came during my first trip to the state. I knew the Lord was highlighting Microsoft and its founder Bill Gates among others. So, words could not express my amazement to actually be invited to the Gates Foundation Thursday with the prayer team, and even share this vision with one of their leaders.

As they prayed, they met a prophet in Washington State who had also seen a rainbow. In her vision this rainbow stretched from Washington State to Washington DC, and appeared with a "book of wisdom" she saw was opening.

We got to pray together on site. And when we prayed, I literally saw this huge rainbow forming from the Peace Arch all the way to downtown Washington DC. On the very same day and time the Supreme Court was holding their hearing on gay marriage. "Tell them I'm taking back My rainbow!"

A New Cornerstone

A final thought. Bill Brubaker prophesied that God wanted to lay His cornerstone at the Peace Arch as a sign that covenant with Him had been renewed "from Washington to Washington." As a monument, the Peace Arch really glorifies the Lord as a witness of His covenant with our land. It even has a picture of the Mayflower on it, whose Pilgrims originally established covenant with the Lord on 11-11, 1620. Not a coincidence that Washington State came into the union on 11-11, 1889!

The Peace Arch also has a scripture engraved on it, which conveys how true covenant commands His blessing. From Psalm 133:1, "How good and pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity!"

But this godly monument was actually dedicated in a Masonic ceremony to Baal. Over the years following the Blaine Outpouring regional intercessors prayed for God to grant a divorce from Baal and restoration of covenant with Jesus Christ. Our prayer journey to the Peace Arch was established by Heaven's Court to affirm what had already been done, and to seal this covenant with the laying of Christ the Cornerstone.

Now here's my point. Beloved, if a cold stone monument can be redeemed for the Lord through covenant renewal, how much more can men and women, cherished by God, be delivered by a covenant renewal. It's where it all begins!

Prayer Focus Points:

Decree the Preamble of the State of Washington: "We, the people of the State of Washington, grateful to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for our liberties, do ordain this constitution."

Decree the Scriptures and word over our nation and the State of Washington.

Pray for Washington Governor Jay Inslee and all governmental authority in this State. Pray for this state to be aligned in righteousness.

We pray that the Lord would Release his righteous plumbline and realign Washington with your sure foundation. Let this state be built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets with the Lord Jesus Christ as the chief Cornerstone.

Washington, we appeal to heaven on behalf of "The Evergreen State". We bless you with the righteousness of our God in Christ Jesus in each mountain of society within you. May you rise up and soar in this new era with a fresh anointing of the glory of God. In Jesus' Name, Amen!

Washington has experienced numerous earthquakes since its founding. They have ranged 5.0-7.4 on the Richter scale.

The Puget Sound region experiences strong windstorms, including ones with hurricane force winds known as mid-latitude cyclones. and flooding

Washington State History and Significance: (named after George Washington). Statehood: November 11, 1889, (42nd state).

State Capital: Olympia, WA

The history of Washington includes thousands of years of Native American history before Europeans arrived and began to establish territorial claims. The region was part of Oregon Territory from 1848 to 1853, after which it was separated from Oregon and established as Washington Territory following the efforts at the Monticello Convention.[1] On November 11, 1889, Washington became the 42nd state of the United States.

Anthropologists estimate there were 125 distinct Northwest tribes and 50 languages and dialects in existence before the arrival of Euro-Americans in this region. Throughout the Puget Sound region, coastal tribes made use of the region's abundant natural resources, subsisting primarily on salmon, halibut, shellfish, and whale. Cedar was an important building material and was used by tribes to build both longhouses and large canoes.

Washington has a long history of treaties with the native Indians but most were broken. Today, over 140K residents are native American.

The first European record of a landing on the Washington coast was in 1774 by Spaniard Juan Pérez. One year later, Spanish Captain Don Bruno de Heceta on board the Santiago, part of a two-ship flotilla with the Sonora, landed near the mouth of the Quinault River and claimed the coastal lands up to the Russian possessions in the north.

American interests in the region grew as part of the concept of manifest destiny. Spain ceded their rights north of the 42nd Parallel to the United States by the 1819 Adams-Onís Treaty, (but not possession, which was disallowed by the terms of the Nootka Conventions).

In 1848, the Oregon Territory, composed of present-day Washington, Oregon, and Idaho as well as parts of Montana and Wyoming, was established. Washington Territory, which included Washington and pieces of Idaho and Montana, was formed from Oregon Territory in 1853

World Trade Organization (WTO) in Seattle, sometimes referred to as the "Battle of Seattle", took place in 1999 when the WTO convened to discuss trade negotiations.