

Wyoming

Motto: Equal Rights

Familiar Name: The Equality State

Prophetic Declaration: The Deliverance State

Prophetic Words over Wyoming: WY has prophetically named Worship Yahweh

The Lord has spoken to Wyoming repeatedly about its gifting to be a place of renewal to the leaders, both secular and spiritual, of the world.

As a state, Chuck Pierce did not see us having a covenantal root. Wyoming is one of the few states to never have had a major revival occur here. We participated in Lou Engels initiative to 'Altar our states before the Lord' from Sacramento CA and so from WY we now put our state on the altar of our Lord and we decree we have nothing, outside of Father God the Great Jehovah! We ask you, Father, to accept our state as we bring a sacrifice of praise before you from Wyoming, this week and in the weeks to come!

Chuck Pierce: "The voice of the Lord will be heard across the state of Wyoming. The prophetic word of the Lord will rain on Wyoming. It will bring release. It will bring breakthrough. It's going to heal the broken hearts; it's going to set the captive free."

Dutch Sheets; "I need for the people, my people in Wyoming to know that they have a loud voice in the Spirit- that they have significance.

The Lord wants you to shift over to a spiritual realm and see that where you don't have much of a voice really in the natural, you have a great voice in the Spirit. And when you pray, and when you decree things you have as much of a voice as any place else in this nation.

I'm giving you a sword. I'm bringing you in unity. You will overthrow thrones of iniquity. This territory will be a place of habitation of My Spirit. Many will come in to this territory. And the voice of God will be heard here.

Deliverance is coming to this state. Iniquities are being broken. People are being released from bondage. Eyes are being opened; scales and veils- scales are falling off; veils are being lifted. Deception is being broken. Every age group is about to receive a visitation, an outpouring by the Spirit of God. Nothing can stop it. Nothing can stop it. Signs and wonder are coming to Wyoming; miracles are coming to Wyoming; miracles are coming. The voice of the Lord will be heard across the state of Wyoming".

Prayer Focus Points for Wyoming:

Restoring the Foundation-Wyoming will bring forth a new song

For the church to be delivered and to be in the business of delivering others

A powerful voice in the Spirit and a New sound of worship will be coming out of Wyoming.

A flood of the Holy Spirit will be raised up in the Big Horn Basin and overflow out into the surrounding area
Fire will flow from Wyoming out to the other states

The fire that God will put in Wyoming will ignite the US. People will travel from all over the world to hear the audible voice of God during Worship

The wealth, minerals of Wyoming will be given to God's children for His Kingdom

State Preamble: We, the people of the State of Wyoming, grateful to God for our civil and political and religious liberties, and desiring to secure them to ourselves and perpetuate them to our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution.

Early People

On the crest of Medicine Mountain, 40 miles east of Lovell, Wyoming, is located the Medicine Wheel which has 28 spokes and a circumference of 245 feet. This was an ancient shrine built of stone by the hands of some forgotten tribe. A Crow chief has been reputed as saying, "It was built before the light came by people who had no iron." This prehistoric relic still remains one of Wyoming's unsolved puzzles.

Southwest of Lusk, covering an area of 400 square miles, are the remains of prehistoric stone quarries known as the "Spanish Diggings." Here is mute evidence of strenuous labor performed by many prehistoric groups at different times. Quartzite, jasper and agate were mined. Artifacts of this Wyoming material have been found as far away as the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys.

The historic Indians in Wyoming were nomadic tribes known as the Plains Indians. They were the Arapaho, Arikara, Bannock, Blackfeet, Cheyenne, Crow, Gros Ventre, Kiowa, Nez Perce, Sheep Eater, Sioux, Shoshone and Ute tribes. Of all of these tribes, the Cheyenne and Sioux were the last of the Indians to be controlled and placed on reservations.

Wyoming Firsts:

First National Park: In 1872, congress named Yellowstone National Park in northwestern Wyoming as the first national park in the world.

First National Forest: By an Act signed by President Benjamin Harris in 1891, Shoshone National Forest became the first national forest. Wyoming now has nine national forests.

First Ranger Station: Wapiti Ranger Station was established in the Shoshone National Forest in 1891.

First National Monument: Devils Tower in northeastern Wyoming was designated the first national monument by President Roosevelt in 1906.

First Business West of the Missouri River: In 1834, Fort William was erected at the confluence of the Laramie and North Platte Rivers by veteran fur traders William Subletter and Robert Campbell. This, the first trading post west of the Missouri River, was established.

First Women to Vote: John A. Campbell, Wyoming's first Territorial Governor, signed a bill December 10, 1869 making Wyoming the first state to grant women the right to vote.

First Woman Justice of the Peace: Esther Hobart Morris was appointed February 17, 1870 in South Pass City.

First All-Woman Jury: The first all-woman jury was sworn in March 7, 1870 in Laramie.
